

Excursion to Porobasti, Alipurduar, on 10.04.2023

Department of English

Report

On 10th April, 2023, The Teachers and students of the department of English, Mathabhanga College went on an excursion to Poro eco park in Foksadanga, Alipurduar. The place had much scenic beauty to offer, having as it does a lush green valley along with a pristine river. Removed from the bustle of cities and towns like Cooch Behar and Mathabhanga, both the teachers and students found some peace in nature and discovered in them traces of their lost childhood joys. The festive picnic was also marked by a tinge of sadness on account of the imminent retirement of Professor Piyush kanti Das, our Departmental Head. Excursions like these, we found, are vital for the department as it provides an occasion for the teachers and students to interact more informally which eventually facilitates learning in the classroom.

The trip concluded with our bus journey back to Mathabhanga at 7 Pm, home to many of the students and teachers of the Department of English.
