

7.3.1: Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 1000 words

Women Empowerment through Holistic Education:

Established in 1969, Mathabhanga College is one of the oldest institutes in the rural part of Cooch Behar district. Most of the students coming to this institute come from needy farmers or daily wage families. Girls in this area are married early due to socio-economic problems. Girls who marry before age 18 are more likely to experience domestic violence and less likely to stay in college. They have poorer economic and health outcomes than their unmarried peers, which are ultimately passed on to their own children, straining the country's capacity to provide quality health and education services. So our aim is to provide them good academic background, infrastructure, stress free environment, free hand to do any type of extracurricular activities like participation in NSS, NCC and sports and cultural programs etc. Every year, girls are admitted to Mathabhanga College in greater proportion compared to boys. They even carry out their education their education even after marriage from the institute.

Following measurements are taken for girl's empowerment:

Safety and security: Safety of girls is a top priority at every college campus. Nowadays, safe and supportive campus community is both an obligation and a challenge for college administrators and students. Institute should provide a comprehensive range of security amenities especially for girls within the premises, through a dedicated team of security personnel. It is a common phenomenon that most of the outstation students enrolling for different courses come out of their homes and cities for the first time in their life. It is therefore of utmost importance for institutions to provide them a comfortable and safe ambience of 'feel at home' within the campus.

24 hour CCTV surveillance is maintained in the college. It helps to keep a check on antisocial activities. Students and other employees in the college too remain cautious about the surveillance. Discipline is also maintained and it also provides a sense of security to the students and even their guardians. Students wear identity cards at all times to ensure their identity. The institution takes good care of the students in every aspect.

ICC (Internal Complaint Cell) is also active in the college. It organizes various events on awareness issues.

Girl's Common room and Day Care room is also available in the campus.
