

Report on the event of special lecture in the department of Economics on 'Analysis of Unemployment in India'

Topic of the special lecture; 'Analysis of Unemployment in India'

Date and Time ; - 13th January 2020, 1 pm

Speaker; Prof. Susovan Mondal ,Assistant Prof. of Economics, Coochbehar College

The program in Brief;

The program started With warm welcome on behalf of the students and teachers of the department of economics with bouquet of flowers. Teacher in Charge Dr. D. Datta delivered welcome address . Prof Aparna Biswas expressed her gratitude to Prof. Susovan Mandal for sparing his valuable time and then told that the topic is included in the UG economics syllabus and the students are asked to listen the lecture attentively. She spends some sentences for briefing unemployment scenario of India. Then prof. Susovan Mondal also expressed thanks to the faculty members of economics department and Dr. Debasish Datta ,TIC Mathabhanga College and then started his lecture with the help of power point presentation. He nicely explained the concept of unemployment and different types of unemployment. Then he presented unemployment scenario of India during last few decades . Emploment and unemployment in different sectors and different category of people, gender disparity regarding unemployment was also discussed . He also briefly discussed the causes of unemployment and different measures adopted by the govt. of India to solve the problem of unemployment. Prof. Susovan Mandal gave his lecture for about 2 hours .Students were very much attentive and actively participated in the interactive session. The program ends with concluding remarks and then vote of thanks by Dr. Amit Kundu. About 80 students were present to listen the lecture.

Outcome ; Paticipants gather knowledge about about the employment and unemployment scenario of India and also causes behind it .